

Residenza Giotto B&B is in the heart of the Historical Center, a few steps from the most important monuments and museums of the city.

Our B&B is on the top floor of an old 1800's building with elevator, on the corner of Piazza San Giovanni

where the

Duomo of Florence

Giotto's bell tower

and the

Baptistry

are; and the very central

Via Roma

famous for its prestigious designer shops.

With us you will find an elegant and friendly environment to make you feel at home.

Residenza Giotto is also a very comfortable solution even for those who are in Florence for business. The station Firenze Santa Maria Novella, the Congress center and the exhibition center at the Fortezza da Basso which hosts many prestigious fairs, are in fact very close to us.

All our rooms have a truly unique view of the center of Florence and from our terrace you can admire Giotto's bell tower which is so close you feel you could almost touch it.
